

Tenure-Track Assistant Professor
The George Washington School of Business
Department of Strategic Management and Public Policy

The George Washington School of Business (GWSB) invites applications for a tenure-track faculty position in the Strategic Management and Public Policy (SMPP) Department starting in Fall 2022. The position is targeted at the Assistant Professor level.

Responsibilities include conducting and publishing research in top-tier journals, teaching at the undergraduate and graduate levels, supervising graduate students, and providing service to the School's academic activities. For this position, the candidate is expected to teach courses at the undergraduate and graduate level in (1) business ethics, (2) business and public policy with a focus on regulation and political economy, and (3) combined business ethics and public policy courses. New tenure-track faculty members ordinarily have a three-course teaching load and summer support.

The SMPP Department is committed to rigorous and high-impact scholarly work from a variety of methodological and theoretical perspectives including strategic management; organization theory; business ethics; corporate governance; public policy; sustainability and corporate social responsibility; environmental, social and governance practices (ESG); diversity, equality and inclusion (DEI); social innovation; and grand challenges, among others. Our faculty members publish in such journals as the Academy of Management Journal, Academy of Management Review, Administrative Science Quarterly, Business Ethics Quarterly, Business History Review, Journal of Business Ethics, Journal of Business Venturing, Journal of Management, Journal of Management Studies, Organization Science, Organization Studies, Organization Theory, Research Policy, and Strategic Management Journal, among others. For the past 20 years, GWSB has been consistently ranked among the top ten business schools for its research and teaching in corporate social responsibility and ethics by Bloomberg's Top Schools for Sustainability, Aspen Institute's Beyond Grey Pinstripes MBA social and environmental ranking, and Corporate Knights MBA Ranking. In 2020, Financial Times ranked GWSB as #9 in CSR among global MBA programs.

Minimum Qualifications: Applicants for this position must have completed all requirements for the Ph.D. degree in business or a closely related field by the date of appointment. Applicants must have demonstrated a potential for success in scholarship as evidenced by research, teaching, and education in both business ethics and in business and public policy (with a focus on regulation and political economy).

To Apply: Please complete a confidential online application (<https://www.gwu.jobs/postings/86247>) and upload a cover letter, summarizing qualifications for the position, references, a teaching summary, a research summary, and current curriculum vitae. Confidential review of applications will begin on October 21, 2021 and continue until the position is filled. Only complete applications will be considered. Contact SMPP Department office manager Rochelle Rediang (rediang@gwu.edu, 202-994-6677) if you have questions about the process. Employment offers are contingent upon the satisfactory outcome of a standard background screening and upon the final approval by the University Provost. SMPP, GWSB, AND GWU value diversity, equity, and inclusion and we strongly encourage minorities, women, individuals with disabilities, and veterans to apply.
